ADA, Mich., June 25, 2004—Global Forex Trading, a world-leading primary market-maker in foreign exchange, now delivers its real-time currency pricing for traders, fund managers and institutions worldwide via the BLOOMBERG PROFESSIONAL® service.

The real-time price feed offers 22 of the 60 currency pairs available on GFT's trading platform DealBook® FX 2. The 22 currencies highlight GFT's competitive pricing for exotic and emerging market currencies, such as the U.S. Dollar/Korean Won or the Euro/Hungarian Forint.

"The new pricing arrangement not only unites two leaders in their respective industries, but also illustrates our ability to offer competitive forex pricing beyond just major currencies," said Gary L. Tilkin, president and CEO, Global Forex Trading.

Pricing for the following additional spot forex crosses are also offered:

AUD/JPY	AUD/USD	EUR/CHF	EUR/GBP	USD/CHF
USD/HUF	USD/CAD	USD/JPY	EUR/JPY	USD/MXN
EUR/PLN	USD/NOK	EUR/USD	USD/PLN	GBP/HUF
USD/ZAR	GBP/JPY	NZD/USD	GBP/PLN	GBP/USD

"Bloomberg offers another viable venue to tout our competitive forex pricing that already attracts fund managers, hedgers and banks throughout the world," said Tilkin. The price feed displays tradable prices made directly by GFT's 24-hour dealing desk allowing terminal users to access GFT's real-time and historical pricing data.
