FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ADA, Michigan, October 18, 2002 - Global Forex Trading, a Foreign Exchange trading leader, has established an exclusive relationship with Cornelius Luca, who will provide expert analysis to users of the company's DealBookFX trading software and its new feature, MarketMentor .

Mr. Luca is an expert in Foreign Exchange trading and analysis. He is the author of Trading in the Global Currency Markets (second edition 2000, first edition 1995), Technical Analysis Applications in the Global Currency Markets (second edition 2000, first edition 1997), both published by Prentice Hall, and Practical Introduction to Technical Analysis, 1997, published by Euromoney/DC Gardner. He has been trading and consulting since 1983.

"Global Forex Trading provides a series of products that benefit currency investors of various sizes," Luca said. "I intend to provide an expert analysis of the FX markets. I want to present the technical levels that will most likely have an impact on trading and possible scenarios that stem from these levels. I also want to provide a curtain raiser on events that might affect currency trading."

"It is very exciting to us that Cornelius Luca chose to associate with Global Forex Trading," said company President Gary Tilkin. "We appreciate his confidence in our people, our products and our services, and look forward to the benefits he will bring our users."
